MAKING DECISIONS: TALKING IT OVER WITH FRIENDS

What kind of decision maker are you? Making a decision can be a process that involves discussion with friends, family and co-workers. This process often includes many set phrases that English speakers use to talk things through. In this class, we will look at phrases used in this situation and role play some scenarios.

CLB Speaking 5 - Sharing Information - Agree, Disagree and give opinions in small group discussions or meetings.

SUGGESTIONS, ADVICE AND REQUESTS: WHAT DO YOU THINK I SHOULD DO?

Your peers are talking about a problem. Now what? How do you make a suggestion politely? How do you know if someone is asking you to do something or TELLING you to do it? How do you make sure coworkers understand your requests? In this session we will look at common phrases for these tasks and role play a wide range of scenarios.

CLB 6 Speaking - Getting Things Done - Give and respond to informal and somewhat formal suggestions and indirect requests.
